

Fidelis Companies

"Fidelis is a detailed, diligent and dedicated professional. Definitely someone you would want on your side in a job hunt."

Senior Principal Scientist,
Roche Pharmaceuticals

"Better than how much I enjoy working with Fidelis, is how much I've gained from their knowledge of people and the industry. They have steered me into several value personnel decisions over the last 2 years. They always seem to be just a phone call away, so it's particularly easy to talk to them...to hear their manner of advocating and presenting themselves and their clients, and to hear their creative solutions. They are recruiters of highly talented people that I would use again...and again."

Director,
Regional Medical Scientist Group

"...I have enjoyed my time working with Fidelis and look forward to a continued professional relationship as a CRA and GCP Auditor."

Senior CCRA, Quality and GCP
Auditor

Fidelis Companies is a certified Woman Owned Business based in Plano, Texas. We provide direct hire and consulting expertise to the Pharmaceutical and Biotechnology industries from start-ups to international global pharmaceutical corporations.

We are well networked within the specialized areas of Research and Development, Clinical Affairs and Medical Affairs and talk to C-level executives, Senior Scientists, Clinical Managers and hands-on specialists every day. As a result, we keep up with trends, common concerns and new insights that affect you and your bottom line. We allow you to hire "best of breed" for your particular needs; our candidates and consultants are proven and vetted resources with extensive industry experience.

We work with an internal network of highly skilled candidates and consultants. The candidates and consultants in our network come from client or peer referrals, which means our network is comprised of a variety of experience levels and industry expertise.

We proactively recruit and network, which allows us to be at the forefront of trends in the market and be in touch with the best available talent for your needs.

Why the best candidates and consultants in the industry choose to work with Fidelis:

We professionally check references

We honor established payment terms

We represent career enhancing opportunities

We are a direct connection to the client - No middle man

We do not waste their time with opportunities that are not a match

We negotiate on behalf of both the client and candidate or consultant

We take the time to get to know them and understand what is important to them

What to expect from Fidelis BioPharm:

Multiple qualified candidates or consultants per search who are:

- Specially screened to your needs
- Outstanding communicators with the ability to lead or supplement existing teams
- Local or regional candidates or consultants when available
- References provided upon request
